

Deborah
Editor in Chief

I am a happily married DIY-er, that loves crafting, and drumming up new projects to make with my Cricut. I am a dedicated wife that's determined to be the best mother, and grand-mother I can be. I love sharing my passions on my blog Debbie's Musings.

About
Debbie's Musings

Debbie's Musings is a lifestyle that was established in 2010, under the name Scattered Musings of A Creative Mind. Over the years we have both evolved, and late last year I changed the name to Debbie's Musings.

DM is the playground for my imperfect imagination, and an outlet for inspiring others with my stories on life as a wife, mother and grand-mother. I invite others to take a step into my world and peek at the craft projects, DIY projects, fun products I've found, and exciting giveaways I share.
